

Teen Zone

Our way of life in the Teen Room

Respect the space

Please help us keep this space in tip-top shape by picking up any food or trash that might make its way onto the floor. We don't mind a little noise, but we ask you to respect others using the library by being mindful of your noise when you venture outside the teen room.

Respect each other and our differences

This is a drama-free zone. Let's refrain from name-calling and using slurs to make others feel less than (less than you, less than human). We solve problems here by calmly talking them through, or by talking with the librarian. Remember, when they go low, you go high. We want the library to be a welcoming space for everyone.

Be Curious

A library isn't just a door in your community, but a window to the world. We have books, movies, video games, board games, technology, and most importantly, access to knowledge!

The "Three Strikes, You're Out" Policy

Our goal is to make the library as inclusive as possible, which is why we have set out consequences for any disruptive behavior that may hold others back from getting the most out of their library.

1

First, you will be reminded of the rules.

2

Second, you will be asked to take a 15-minute break from the library.

3

Third, you will be asked to leave the library for the rest of the day.*

*Depending on behavior, you may be asked to leave longer than one day.

No Illegal Activity

The library has zero tolerance for violence, threats, smoking, vaping, drinking, and the buying, selling or using of drugs on library property (inside and outside the building).
